Bipartisan support for DACA in Calif. may lead to lawsuit

President Trump's Sept. 5 announcement that he will end the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program may affect over 200,000 "Dreamers" living in California. Lawmakers, employers and religious leaders condemned the decision and vowed to protect those who fear deportation as a result of the change, citing the potential wide-ranging effects it could have on the California economy.
